10. DETAILS ON HOW TO MAKE REQUESTS FOR ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY THE EXACT AFRICA PROPERTY SOLUTION COMPANY (PTY) LTD

10.1 A requester requiring access to information held by the organization must complete the prescribed form (Form 2 of Annexure A to the Regulations) available from the Information Regulator website (<https://www.justice.gov.za/infoleg/docs2-f.html>) and submit it to the Information Officer at the address, fax number or electronic mail address provided for above, and also make the payment of the prescribed fees. Refer to Annexure A of this document.

- 10.2 A “requester”, in relation to a private body, means “(i) any person, including, but not limited to a public body or an official thereof, making a request for access to a record of that private body; or (ii) a person acting on behalf of the person contemplated in (i). A “personal requester” means a requester seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester.
- 10.3 The prescribed form must be completed with enough particularity to enable the Information Officer to identify:
- 10.3.1 the record(s) requested;
 - 10.3.2 the identity of the requester;
 - 10.3.3 indicate which form of access is required, if the request is granted;
 - 10.3.4 specify the postal address or fax number of the request in the Republic;
- 10.4 The requester must state which right she or he is seeking to exercise or protect and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of such right.
- 10.5 The requester will be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, she or he must state the manner and the particulars so required.
- 10.6 If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.
- 10.7 If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally. The Information Officer shall assist to complete the prescribed form.
- 10.8 Exact Africa Property Solution Company (Pty) Ltd will process the request within 30 days unless the requester has stated special reasons which would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above periods not be complied with.
- 10.9 The Information Officer may in considering a request for access to a record that might be a record contemplated in section 63(1), 64(1), 65 or 69(1) of PAIA, must take all reasonable steps, required in Section 71 of PAIA, to inform the third party to whom or which the record relates of the request. The third-party will be provided with an opportunity to make written representations as to why the request for the record should be refused, alternatively provide consent to disclose the record.

11. PRESCRIBED FEES

The following applies to requests (other than requests from personal requester):

- 11.1 A requestor is required to pay a prescribed fee before a request will be processed;
- 11.2 If the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed hours (six), a deposit shall be paid (of not more than one-third of the access fee which would be payable if the request were granted);
- 11.3 A requester may lodge an application with a court or lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator against the tender/payment of the request fee and/or deposit;
- 11.4 Records may be withheld until the fees have been paid.
- 11.5 The fee structure is available on the website of the Information Regulator under Government Gazettes relating to PAIA (GG 45057, GoN 757).
- 11.6 Refer to Annexure 2 of the PAIA Manual

12. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

The main reason(s) why the organization may refuse a request for information relates to the –

- 12.6.4 a computer program that is owned by the organization, and which is protected by copyright (section 68);
- 12.7 Mandatory protection of research information of the third party, and protection of research information of private body (Section 69)
- 12.8 Requests for information that is frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

13. REMEDIES AVAILABLE WHEN THE COMPANY REFUSES A REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

The following remedies are available to the requesting party when the organisation, as a private body, refuses the request for a record of information.

13.1 Internal Remedies

The organization does not have an internal appeal procedure. As such, the decision made by the Information Officer is final, and requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requester is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

13.2 External Remedies¹⁵

13.2.1 Complaint to Information Regulator

A requester that is dissatisfied with an Information Officer's refusal to disclose information or "aggrieved by a decision of the head of a private body-
(i) to refuse a request for access; or
(ii) taken in terms of section 54, 57 (1) or 60, may within 180 days of the decision, submit a complaint, alleging that the decision was not in compliance with PAIA, to the Information Regulator in the prescribed manner and form for appropriate relief.¹⁶"

13.2.2 Application to Court

A requester or third party may only apply to a court for appropriate relief in terms of section 82 of PAIA in the following circumstances after exhausting alternative remedies such as:

- The Internal appeal procedure referred to in Section 74; or
- After that requester or third party has exhausted the complaints procedure referred to in section 77A of the PAIA Act.

A requester-
